

SECURITY IN SOUTHEASTERN EUROPE

Edited by Aleksandar Fatić

CONTENTS:

Introduction: Aleksandar Fatić, Security Threats in Southeastern Europe and Ways to Respond to Them; Dimitar Bechev, Worst-Case Scenarios and Historical Analogies: Interpreting Balkan Interstate Relations in the 1990s; Srđan Vučetić, The Stability Pact as a Security Community-Building Institution?; Emilian Kavalski, The Euratlantic Involvement in the Balkans: Suggestions from Theory; Angel Angelov, NATO Enlargement and the Balkans; Othon Anastasakis, Greece as a Regional Power in the Balkans: From Politics of Coercion to a Policy of Cooperation; Ulf Brunnbauer, The Consequences of Identity Politics: Security Dilemmas in the Republic of Macedonia; Denisa Kostovicova, Serbia's Democratisation and the Resolution of the Kosovo Dispute; Nikolaos Dem-Ang Arvanites, Post-War Kosovo and Metohija: A Crime Assessment; Sappho Xenakis, Organised Crime in the Balkans: Pitfalls of Threat Assessment; Bojan Dimitrijević, A Slow Way into the Partnership Future: Vojska Jugoslavije (Srbije i Crne Gore) in the Post-Milošević Period; Emma J. Stewart, Preventing and Managing Conflict in the Former Yugoslavia: The Role of the European Union

Security Policy Group
THE MANAGEMENT CENTER

January 2004

248 Pages

Hardcovers

ORDER FORM

Please send a copy of the book SECURITY IN THE SOUTHEASTERN EUROPE to the address below:

Name/Institution _____

Address _____

City/Postal Zip code _____

Phone _____ Fax _____

Price:

Europe
€ 79,95

Great Britain
£ 49,95

USA and Canada
$ 82,95

Payment should be made by cheques drawn to:

Centar za menadžment
Carigradska 3, 11108 Beograd
Serbia and Montenegro

Tel/fax: (+381.11) 3346.368, tel. (+381.11) 3345.691

www.management.org.yu

office@management.org.yu